

Judit Moral

Interior Designer

Her motto is: “People are unique and so their projects should also be”
Judith was born in Barcelona, she was always an artistic girl with a great passion for Art and drawing. This led her in the future to study Interior Design at the School of Art in her city.

Judit began her career in the World of Interior Design in 2003.

During those beginnings she learned all the secrets to build a piece of furniture correctly, the diversity of materials and their particularities.

Years later he entered the World of comprehensive renews. Dedicated to the residential world, she learned to understand that functionality and aesthetics are equally important.

Years later she completed a master's degree in window dressing and commercial interior design and entered the contract world. Her path led her to join Edenburg Hospitality where she leads the Design team. Where hotels are designed for countless Brands or also independent hotels.

She considers herself, curious, organized, artistic, adaptable and dynamic.

She has made her passion, her profesion.

Each project is a new experience, where understanding the client's needs and applying these important aspects in design proposal is key.